Meeting Called in Board Row

The local citizens committee selected to study the thorny problem of religion in the public schools here met Wednesday night in an attempt to come up with some recommendations.

It is expected that the committee will report its findings to the Board of Education Monday night, during the Board's regular meeting.

Committee members were chosen by local civic organizations following the hectic Board of Education meeting Feb. 7 in the school cafeteria.

THE FINAL members of the group were chosen Tuesday by the Coordinating Council. Members are:

Lawrence McGinnis, Catholic Church; Ray Bowman, Teachers Faculty Association; Robert D. Dodge, Chamber of Commerce; J. P. Atkinson and Frank Barbour, PTA; Rev. George Lindsay and Rev. Robert Schaper, Ministerial Association; Rabbi Charles Stecker, the Jewish community; Mrs. Thomas Ames, Mrs. William Keith and Mrs. Dorothy Tiller, Coordinating Council.

The controversy, which at times reached the point of lawlessness, started following the Jan. 28 meeting of the School Board.

A letter protesting the excessive religious content of the school Christmas play, the Nativity scene, was read. Following discussion of the letter, the Board adopted the following resolution:

"Sierra Madre school policy recognizes that the field of instruction in religion belongs to the home and to the church and is not a function of the school. We disapprove of any emphasis on any type of sectarian religion in the school program or in the school curriculum."

THE BOARD, which appeared completely unaware of the reaction that would follow, felt it was merely stating policy which is outlined in both the Federal and State Constitutions.

Prolonged debate has arisen, however, over whether the presentation of the Nativity at Christmas in the schools constitutes religious indoctrination or is primarily educational and historical in value.

Lions Plan Contest for Boy Orators

Student speakers from four area high schools will compete here Feb. 28 in the annual contest sponsored by the International Lions Club.

The contest will start at 7:15 p.m. in the Woman's Clubhouse at the local club's dinner meeting. Carl Lotze, Lion president, will preside, and Ralph J. Martin will be contest chairman.

This year's contest will have more than 600 Lions Clubs sponsoring a student speaker. Approximately 16,000 students from 700 schools in California and Nevada will participate.

The finals will be at the Lions International Convention in San Francisco the latter part of June. The first-place winner will receive a $1,500 scholarship to any accredited college, and three second-place speakers will receive scholarships of $500 each.

Contestants must go through seven levels before reaching the finals. About $7,000 in prizes will be awarded at the various levels.

Students who will speak here are from Marshall Junior High, Wilson Junior High, LaSalle High, and Monrovia-Duarte High.

Valois Will Not Seek Reelection to Board

Dr. Milton Valois, president of the Sierra Madre Board of Education, revealed Monday night that he will not seek re-election in May.

Dr. Valois, a local dentist who has been on the Board of Education for six years, made the announcement at a meeting of the Civic Service Club, an organization devoted to exploring community problems.

He explained that "six years is long enough" and that the Board "needs some new blood." He did not mention the current controversy over religion in the schools as a factor in contributing to his decision not to run again.

APPLICATIONS for School Board membership must be filed by April 15.

Earlier, Dr. Valois explained problems facing the Sierra Madre schools, while City Administrator Lawrence C.

Immediate problems the Board of Education must solve, Dr. Valois said, include:

1. Rehabilitation of the schools. This includes continuous repairs and maintenance of both Sierra Madre and Sierra Mesa School.

Dr. Valois explained that little or no money has been available until recently to keep the physical plant in top shape and that consequently a great deal must be done.

Local Doctor Joins Medical Center Here

Dr. James P. Comerford, 432 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., has opened his office with the medical group in the Sierra Madre Medical Center at 245 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Dr. Comerford was in general practice in Pasadena before joining the local medical group. He received his medical degree at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, interned and was chief

Dr. James P. Comerford resident at Scranton State Hospital in Pennsylvania.

He also had one year rotating residency at the Santa Cruz County Hospital in Santa Cruz, Calif., and is a member of the Los Angeles County Medical Association.

The Comerfords, Mrs. Claire, Nancy, 7, and Jimmy, 6, attend St. Rita's Church in Sierra Madre, where the doctor is a member of the Holy Name Society and Mrs. Comerford sings in the choir. They are formerly from Scranton, Pa., and have lived in Sierra Madre for over one year.

Easter Hats Is Theme of Nursery Dance

Plans are now being made for the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association's annual dance, which will be at the Santa Anita Turf Club on Saturday evening, March 30.

Hors d'oeuvres will be served during the cocktail hour from 8:30 to 9:30. Dancing will be to the music of George Poole and his orchestra. Tickets are $4.00.

Mrs. George Tyree, ways and means chairman, in charge of the dance, plans on having another hat contest this year. The theme will be Easter bonnets and prizes will be awarded to the girls with the most ingenuity.

Local Red Cross Chapter Boosts 1957 Fund Goal

Lee Shippey has been named chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Red Cross chapter here, it was announced yesterday.

New Board members are Robert Green, president of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Emil Smith.

The local chapter has set a fund goal this year of $6,910, Charles R. Gildart, fund campaign chairman, reported.

Because of recent floods in the East, the goal this year is $318 higher than in 1956, Col. Gildart explained.

The campaign is now underway and all captains have been assigned. However, Col. Gildart urged anyone interested in soliciting for the Red Cross to contact the local chapter at ELgin 5-0745 between 10 and 12 a.m. or 1 and 3 p.m. Monday through Friday.

MASONIC DINNER

The Masonic Lodge here will have its annual Washington's Birthday Dinner Sunday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

No New Clues Found In Cross Burning

Police report "no new developments" in their attempt to discover who burned a cross on the lawn of a member of the Sierra Madre School Board on Feb. 9.

Chief Gordon G. McMillan said he was still "working on an angle" that "indicated juveniles" but that no suspects had yet been identified.

Meanwhile, after debating the wisdom of calling further attention to the incident, the City Council at its regular meeting last week adopted a resolution prompted by the cross burning but not actually referring to it.

THE RESOLUTION states: "The City Council reaffirms the basic right of every citizen to express his views under the laws of this government and deplores any action

Chamber Has Top Speaker For Meeting

Ernest L. Loen, president of Ernest L. Loen and Associates, will be the guest speaker at the annual Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce installation banquet on March 11, Harry Lange, dinner chairman, announced yesterday.

Mr. Loen is nationally known as a business consultant to major corporations and as a lecturer. During the first two months of this year, he has already spoken before numerous groups in most of the states, Mr. Lange said.

The topic of his address will be "So You Think You Know Human Relations." He will discuss the problem of the businessman, both from the standpoint of working with his associates in business and his specific problem, employee relationship.

The Sierra Madre Chamber is fortunate to secure Mr. Loen, Mr. Lange said, pointing out that dinner reservations should be obtained early by contacting the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce.

The dinner will be held at the Sierra Madre Masonic Temple, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Thurber, Schwartz Honored

Thomas M. Schwartz and Col. Walter D. Thurber of Sierra Madre were among the six Republicans honored at the Lincoln Day Dinner of the 48th District Republican Assembly at the Altadena Town and Country Club. The group was elected to honorary lifetime members of the Assembly Board of Directors.

The name of Tom Schwartz in Sierra Madre has become synonymous with "Sierra Madre's Mr. Republican." Long years of service on the County Republican Central Committee and his activities as chairman of various party committees have been responsible for this unofficial title.

Col. Thurber was one of those party workers who helped to organize the California Republican Assembly in the early '30s. Also honored were Edward S. Shattuck, new Republican national committeeman from California, the late Carl Hinchshaw, former member of Congress from the Pasadena district; Bruce Reagan, former assemblyman; Leo S. Anderson, and Otto Mauthe.

In 1936 Col. Thurber served the Republican National Campaign Committee as director of research for Southern California. He has been identified with party affairs in various capacities since moving from Altadena to Sierra Madre in 1941 and laid the basic plans for Sierra Madre's first political "torchlight" parade.

Local WAC At Ft. Myer

WAC Pvt. Beverly A. Tancrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tancrell, 415 W. Highland, is assigned to headquarters company of the Women's Army Corps at Fort Myer, Va. Pvt. Tancrell, a clerk-typist, entered the Women's Army Corps in February 1955 and received basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala.

WCTU TO MEET

The regular meeting of the Harter Union-WCTU will be at 2 p.m. Feb. 28 in the Sierra Madre Methodist Church. Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Jones will be hostesses.

Annual Pancake Breakfast Set

English pancakes, not to be confused with the American variety, will be served at the Woman's Clubhouse Feb. 26 at the annual Pancake Breakfast sponsored by the John Ruskin chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire.

The pancakes, made with eggs, milk and other ingredients, will be served from 9 a.m. to about 2:30 p.m. The cost is 75 cents per person, and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Mary W. Pulling at ELgin 5-0715 or Mrs. Alice Sedgeman at ELgin 5-0377.

The breakfast is generally held on the Tuesday before Lent, but because of scheduling of the Clubhouse, the date was moved ahead one week this year. All proceeds will go to the British Home here. Mrs. Nellie Holloway is chapter regent.

Only 3 Days Left in Mrs. America Test

Sierra Madre homemakers have only three more days to enter the 1957 Mrs. America contest, according to Frank D. Roe, Southern Counties Gas Co. local manager.

"Sierra Madre area would-be contestants should be cautioned," Mr. Roe said, "that only entries received or postmarked by midnight, Saturday, Feb. 23, will be eligible to join in the contest and vie for honors and more than $25,000 in prizes."

Entry blanks are still available at gas company offices, Mr. Roe pointed out. From the field of local entrants, contest judges will select a group of outstanding finalists for the regional finals. Winner of the regional title will go on to the Beverly-Hilton for three days, April 1-3, of extensive home-making tests which will determine the winner of the Mrs. California, 1958 title.

Regional and state finalists will compete for more than $10,000 worth of prizes, including automatic gas clothes dryers, ranges and gas refrigerators. Winner of the nationwide "Mrs. America" finals at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., May 7-14, will receive more than $15,000 worth of prizes.

Approval Seen Based On Engineering Study

By Don Pope

Despite continued protest from a number of property owners, the City Council at its regular meeting Tuesday night is expected to approve a canyon-filling project along Mt. Wilson Trail Road.

The fill application, sought by Melvin L. Bowman, 655 Fairview Ave., has been recommended to the Council by City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington.

Mr. Bevington, who earlier said the project would set a precedent for future Sierra Madre development, based his approval on an engineering study and consultation with representatives from the Planning Commission.

The Bevington report, read at last week's Council meeting, failed to satisfy some 20 property owners present at the meeting who reiterated their fears of flood danger inherent in the filling of mountain canyons.

MR. BOWMAN's access to his property with the trucks necessary for carrying the fill was also sharply questioned. A number of letters, plus a telegram from former Sierra Madrean, Paul Carter, were presented to the Council as evidence that Mr. Bowman does not have the necessary access.

Mr. Bowman retorted by presenting deeds to land he has recently acquired along Mt. Wilson Trail which, he said, would allow him to transport fill over either the so-called fire road (Mt. Wilson Trail Road) or on a road to be built on the present foothill.

He also cited a "verbal contract" with Paul Carter which raised the question of which side Mr. Carter, who owns trail property, actually supports.

A lengthy airing of the access question produced more heat than light. When Mrs. Gladys Carter, a leading spokesman for the protest delegation, climaxed an historical review of Mt. Wilson Trail by saying that, strictly speaking, there were not two roads into the Bowman property, but THREE, the Council threw up its collective hands.

Mayor Charles H. James, obviously expressing the general sentiment, confessed himself "completely confused." Eventually, City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn was instructed by the Council to make a title search to determine once and for all who owns what and where. His answer to the riddle is anticipated on Tuesday.

MR. BOWMAN plans to subdivide about 15 mountain-side acres. He refused demands for details of the projected development, on the ground that they were irrelevant to the fill application.

The Council supported him in this contention and indicated that the city ordinance which applies to the Bowman application requires them to issue a fill permit so long as engineering requirements are met. Mr. Bevington's report states that the requirements have been met. The Council did, however, agree to ask County Flood Control and Forest Service opinions before a final ruling.

The City Council also: Referred a letter requesting a ban on sale of "crime comics" to Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan.

Deferred first reading of an ordinance setting up a parks and recreation commission after Councilman Lorne B. Pratt protested that he had not received a copy of the proposal.

Approved appointment of William Noel as Public Works Superintendent, at a monthly salary of $475.

Accepted a $10,876 bid for a control panel at the Mira Monte pumping plant.

APPROVED the city administrator's recommendation that the city could save over 100 per cent on the cost of storm drain catch basins on Baldwin Ave. by rejecting a $39,870 bid, lowest submitted by outside contractors, and do the work itself for an estimated $12,000 to $14,000. Acknowledged in response to a citizen's request for street lights on Monterey Lane, that "hundreds of streets need lights" but cited the complications resulting from the practice of running light poles along the back of property lines for the sake of appearance.

This raised the question of whether recent subdivisions—specifically the so-called Washburn Tract—had been accepted by the city despite non-compliance with street light requirements. The city clerk was instructed to check the records.

Agreed to study a petition signed by 15 residents requesting sidewalks along Sierra Madre Blvd. between Canon and Coburn.

Approved an amendment reducing a portion of D St., which crosses Cypress Court, from 20 to 19 feet.

Tabled for study a letter from the mayor of Monterey Park warning that a county decision "ignoring Monterey Park's rights" by establishing a dump in that city should be a warning to other cities that their zoning laws also may be flouted by the county.

Mrs. E. M. Askew, 37-Year Resident, Succumbs at 86

Mrs. Edith Matthews Askew, 115 N. Baldwin, died Tuesday in Sierra Madre Hospital. She was 86 years old.

A native of Liverpool, England, Mrs. Askew had been a resident of California since 1905 and had lived in Sierra Madre 37 years.

She is survived by a son, Charles E. Askew, of Sierra Madre; two grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in the Ripple Mortuary Chapel, with Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor of Bethany Church, officiating. Interment will be in Mt. View Cemetery.

There Are Other Problems

Five years from now, it's reasonably safe to predict, few of us will readily recall the current and distorted hubbub over religion in the public schools. But the problem of running the schools will still be with us.

Another safe prediction is that only a fraction of the Sierra Madreans who today are so frantic over what they consider the subversion of religion in the classrooms will pause to think twice over these other, equally important problems.

Indeed, the Board of Education today faces grave decisions aside from the separation of church and state, which, it seems to me, is primarily a matter of interpretation.

Those of us who believe the current controversy is strictly a local problem are, I think, indulging in wishful hallucinations. But few of us will dispute the contention that the problem of running our elementary schools from day to day is predominately a matter of local concern.

What are some of the decisions the Board of Education will have to make? There are at least four immediate ones. They have been published previously, but so far only a handful of Sierra Madreans has taken any interest in them.

1. The Board must pick a new superintendent of schools to replace Charles A. Skutt, who is resigning. The man hired presumably will have a great influence on your children.

He will have a hand in adopting a curriculum (a separate problem in itself), in supervising the teachers, in administering the tax money all of us pay to support our school system.

Choosing a qualified man is not an easy task, but the Board must make the choice.

2. Teachers salaries will have to be raised. Currently, it's difficult to get and retain good teachers because in about 75 per cent of the towns in the San Gabriel Valley they can make more money.

Now, money alone does not insure an expert teaching staff. But it does help. How much more our teachers will receive is a problem the Board will have to meet.

3. The program of rehabilitating the school plant must be continued. Unfortunately, from 1927 almost until the present little was done.

That meant that the roof started to leak, the lighting became inadequate and dozens of other minor crisis arose.

In the past, as many of you will recall, there was not enough money to overcome these physical problems. But today, thanks to the increased assessed valuation and the school tax rate boost, more funds are available.

Again, the Board of Education will have to decide how your money is to be spent.

4. Our growing school population is probably the most important problem of all facing the Board of Education.

There are now approximately 784 students in the elementary school. By 1966, there will be more than 1,000, by conservative estimates.

This means that more classrooms will be needed, probably at least 10. Money will have to be raised to build the classrooms, possibly through a bond issue.

The Board of Education must make these decisions, also.

With the support of the community, Sierra Madre is now in a position to develop one of the best elementary school systems in the nation.

Whether we do or not is up to you. In the last School Board election, if I recall correctly, less than 60 of us took the trouble to vote. We'll have to do better than that.—H. W. E.

The Need Is Great—Give!

Lee Shippey asks
What Do You Think?

Some subjects used to be considered unmentionable in livingrooms of cultivated persons. But that was before radio and television commercials thrust them down our ears.

I OFTEN hear it said that radio and television have banished conversation. Millions of us have learned to sit still and listen and watch with never time to think of what we hear or see. Before we have time to question or think about anything that has been presented to us something else demands our attention, crowding it completely out of mind. We not only have no time to think but no need of thinking, for we are continually told what to think. We are told repeatedly—and how repeatedly—so that many of us have quit thinking for ourselves.

That may save us a lot of bother, but isn't it bringing us to the climax of the push-button age? Prepared, predigested ideas are poured into us, the modern world is so full of time-savers that no one has any time. We have conquered space but we have not conquered time. We can be swished from coast to coast or continent to continent, but never have time to get acquainted with the family around the corner. We can fly from continent to continent with no physical effort, but we get twice as tired as Columbus did when he discovered the Western Hemisphere, for all our muscles are going soft because of pushbutton aids to flabbiness. Now, if we let all our mental muscles get soft we may be plunging into the age in which wealth accumulates and men decay. "Apre moi le deluge," said Louis XIV. I wonder if a lot of us pushbutton athletes shouldn't remind ourselves:

Try this simple remedy for a week. If it fails to work we will cheerfully give you double your money back—double the nothing the suggestion costs you. You can't lose. At the very least, you will deaden the ears of all present to one or two commercials dealing with subjects of such private nature that they would have made you blush a few years ago.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"With me, it was wine, women and a lousy lawyer!"

Report From Abroad

By Bill Dillingham

ENGLAND—In England, the hangman's rope is presently hanging in the balance. It has always been unpopular with criminals, but now many law-abiding citizens are protesting, too. "We're way behind times," explained a London street orator. "Look at the Americans, they use electricity and gas and such things."

If the newspapers are judging correctly, public opinion in England is rapidly swinging over to a complete removal of capital punishment. Too many people have been hanged lately contrary to the public's belief in justice.

THE ENGLISH press still mentions the case of Timothy Evans, hanged for murder. When the chief witness against him was later exposed to investigation himself, bodies began to tumble out of his walls. His cellar and garden were well overcrowded with his own victims. Evans, however, had already been hanged.

Lesser punishment, such as life imprisonment, would give time to reveal and correct judicial mistakes. But when the Crown hangs a man, many Britishers are saying, the case leaves little reason to be reopened.

In England not too long ago a man was sentenced to death for a very unusual crime. This case in particular has almost doubled the ranks of those against capital punishment.

The murder involved a man who was acting as a baby sitter. The parents had left the house and their child in the care of a fairly friend, explaining that they would return in about 45 minutes. During that time the 6-month-old baby could not be induced to stop crying, and the distraught man strangled the infant in a fit of rage. Himself a father, his only defense was that he did it "in a weak moment."

English justice found no alternative in the laws but to sentence him to death.

THERE ARE a number of women that collect themselves regularly into protest groups outside of prisons. When a hanging is due to take place, and for a length of time before and after the event, they stage quiet demonstrations that are "lady-like and in accordance with proper English behaviour."

While in America and numerous other countries, the courts recognize "temporary insanity," such as might have been applied to the strangled baby case. British law is unmerciful with the Englishman who lets his monacle slip even once.

Petitions have been pouring into the government most heavily during the last two years. Private organizations are increasing their appeals. For a time, it looked as though capital punishment was due to be abolished, but the House of Lords voted to maintain it. Agitation, however, is certain to continue until the case against hanging is won.

ASKS CANYON STUDY

Dear Editor:

May we heartily concur with the opinion of Lee Shippey regarding the filling of our canyons, expressed last week in his column, What Do You Think?

We, too, believe the people of Sierra Madre should know the facts.

Our city reservoir, streets and homes may be endangered by 50,000 cubic yards of moving mud from the Mt. Wilson Trail Canyon!

A precedent-setting decision is before our City Council which could permit filling of all our canyons by speculators without certified engineering specifications.

Our City Council is considering granting a permit to an applicant, Melvin Bowman, for an 8,000-cubic-yard fill in the canyon above the Mira Monte Reservoir and covering the old Mt. Wilson Trail.

It is public knowledge that the applicant intends to place an additional 42,000 cubic yards of fill in this same canyon before he is through.

Under the existing ordinance this piece-meal licensing is condoned, and supplemental permits can be granted by one man without any further hearings or investigations.

For everyone's protection, the City should require all developers to submit a complete set of plans, drawn by a registered professional civil engineer, and that these plans be approved by the City Planning Commission, City Council, and the Los Angeles County Flood Control District, before the permit is granted.

If all our canyons are filled without these safeguards, it can affect all the citizens of Sierra Madre.

This important decision will be before our City Council Tuesday, Feb. 26.

Sincerely,
CITIZENS FOR CANYON SAFETY.

QUESTIONS SHIPPEY

Dear Sir:

Mr. Lee Shippey asks us continually in your columns: "What Do You Think?"

Well, I think The Sierra Madre News should engage this Col. Gildart to present his views in a column alongside of Mr. Shippey's. The colonel seems to more faithfully reflect the thinking of the majority of Sierra Madreans than does Mr. Shippey. The latter is an avowed Democrat. He took his views before the electorate in this district a few years ago while while seeking a congressional post, and got clobbered. Doubtless he would get clobbered again if he stuck his neck out for public office on the set of principles he advocates.

Meanwhile, we are exposed to his thinking in print. And it's largely unquestioned except when the colonel rises up and slaps him down.

I believe you're overlooking a reader interest "natural." Unleash the colonel on this New Deal-Fair Deal, Roosevelt-Truman dupe. He'll rid Shippey's mental attic of cobwebs but quick—compel him to adhere to the facts (always distasteful to the "Liberals")—and transform your space from an ex parte proceeding into an open forum wherein we get both sides of public affairs.

I sign below as an individual speaking only for myself. But you'd be surprised if you knew how many of your readers agree.

Sincerely,
DENNIS MURRAY.
(The Sierra Madre News carries the column by Edgar W. Hiestand, a Republican who weekly espouses the GOP point of view.—Ed.)

FACTS OVERLOOKED

Dear Editor:

I do not wish to prolong a controversial issue, yet it seems to me that some important facts have been overlooked.

1. Christmas is a national holiday.

2. It is celebrated for the birth of Jesus.

3. America was founded by the Protestants.

To give a play commemorating this birth can hardly be construed as teaching religion in the schools.

It is a historical fact that Protestants founded America, yet they wished to keep it free of religious prejudice by separating state and church, thus preventing possible religious persecution which they had experienced in their mother country.

I know Mrs. Roane and I am sure she did not anticipate the furor her letter would create.

The local Board of Education, I believe, acted too prematurely and I would think should know the difference between a Christmas play and the teaching of religion in the schools.

I might add that the teaching of scruples and morals is surely needed in all of our schools and should be taught in the lower grades, if it is not. It is too late to straighten out a child when he has reached the higher grades. At least it is more difficult. The word "morals" has a broad connotation. The dictionary defines it as "right conduct," so dishonesty would be immoral, a drunkard is immoral, temper is immoral, and so on. And this teaching, while basically religious, could hardly be labeled sectarianism.

The Protestants in this country opened the way to religious tolerance and I believe that all members of other religions should act accordingly; otherwise, religious freedom may perish in this country as it has in others.

Yours for real freedom,
HAZELLE R. PAUS.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR

Dear Sir:

I would like to thank you for your good editorials and your heading of the current controversial subject in our little city.

Your suggestion for next year's Nativity pageant sounds good. But I think Marjorie Parker really touched the core of the whole matter when she said, "Christianity is a fine thing, we should try it sometime."

Whether we believe that Christ was just another prophet, just a good man, or the divine son of God, we can teach our children to "Love thy God with all thy heart and soul and mind, and thy neighbor as thyself" and it won't matter whether we have Nativity pageants in our out of school.

Sincerely,
JANET S. WOOD.

DEPLORE CROSS BURNING

Dear Sir:

I deeply regret the row over the Nativity play. The cross burning is the action of a small mind. I consider the persons who started this trouble in our quiet and worthwhile city shortsighted and void of divine feelings toward the only Man who could call Himself God and prove it by returning to earth after death.

He lives today in the hearts and lives of millions of people.

Your fellow citizen,
W. H. POLLGREEN.

Washington News

By Edgar W. Hiestand, Rep. 21st District

I was privileged last week to hear three remarkable discussions which took place during the annual reorganization conference of the Committee for the Hoover-Bipartisan Commission Report.

The first day I sat about 10 feet from President Eisenhower when Arthur S. Flemming, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, gave a brilliant address stressing how tragically important the nation's economic soundness is to our defense effort.

At this luncheon President Eisenhower conferred upon former President Hoover a citation for service in "science, business, government, education, art, charity." It praised Hoover's 40 years of public service culminating in this Commission's work.

That night at dinner Hoover gave a classic address—brief, to the point, yet profound. It exemplified the logic, the directness, and the refreshing sense of humor that characterize every speech of our senior statesman. But this was one of his best. It has been quoted widely.

In asking cheaper, yet more efficient government, Hoover said that total government spending, including state and municipal levies upon the people, is running nearly $103 billion a year—practically one-third of the national income. The Hoover-Bipartisan Commission aims to save much of this money. But it would go further. It is recommending changes in the structural system that got the United States on a spending spree, so it can't happen again.

LAVISH SPENDING can't continue if we are to remain a free nation. To see it would delight the souls of Marx and Lenin.

Government spending of any kind is inflationary. But deficit spending—borrowing from our grandchildren to pay present bills—forces the cost of living to skyrocket. It injures all people, but especially it hurts those who can afford it least, wage earners, pensioners, workingmen and housewives.

Channeling so much from our productive enterprise also prevents the creation of new businesses and new jobs, thereby stifling economic growth.

Hoover stressed that the country is being hurt, too, by the many government enterprises which compete with taxpaying citizens. In practically every case these enterprises would be operated more efficiently by private parties, he said. Some have been halted, he added, but there's a long way to go.

Hoover noted that a large defense arsenal is necessary and that the Commission does not intend to abolish any of the necessary functions of government. But he added that with the help of the President and Congress, much progress has occurred in eliminating "defense functions" that should be carried by private industry. And more will follow.

Civic Club Members Aid Local Hospital

Sierra Madre Civic Club members are busy with the many activities which are on the agenda for the remainder of this club year.

The last regular meeting was a social evening with Mrs. Joseph Murphy, Mrs. Herman Ohs and Mrs. Willard Olney as hostesses. On March 2 husbands and wives will be welcomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barden for supper and dancing. Mrs. Stuart Fried is in charge of arrangements for the evening.

The main philanthropy of the year is the furnishing of the nursery for the new Sierra Madre Hospital and a check has been turned over to Mrs. Helen Morrison for this use.

Proceeds of the bake sale held recently, with Mrs. Keith Mankin as chairman, will be sent to the leukemia ward of the City of Hope.

Among the other civic and philanthropic projects which the club supports will be plans to raise money to purchase reference books for the Sierra Madre Library.

Mrs. Edward Chapman, ways and means chairman, announced another theater party and a back yard sale. Also on Feb. 27 at 8 p.m., a demonstration of pottery and china will be given in the exhibition room of the Sierra Madre Library. All are welcome and there is no charge.

Quakers Rely on Local Man; Send Medicine to Suez

The first shipment of medicines from the American Friends Service Committee for Suez Canal Zone refugees left by air this week for Cairo.

The 1,024 pound shipment will be distributed by the Red Crescent Society, the Egyptian counterpart of the Red Cross. It was valued at $6,800 and included vitamins and antibiotic donated by American drug manufacturers.

The decision to send material aid was made by the Service Committee following a two-week exploratory mission by Paul Johnson of Sierra Madre who went from California to Egypt in December at the invitation of the Egyptian government.

Up to $15,000 worth of medicine will be shipped by the Quaker organization as part of a response to emergency needs in Egypt. Four thousand one-burner kerosene stoves with cooking utensils are being purchased for distribution by the Ministry of Social Affairs to Port Said families who lost homes and household goods during the hostilities. Quaker groups in Great Britain, France, Canada and Sweden shared in the contribution.

The Service Committee has also made a grant to the YMCA for a recreational program among Canal Zone refugees, and has given financial assistance to the Inter-

'Ma' Kiggins Celebrates 75th Birthday

More than 200 relatives and friends gathered in the VFW Clubhouse last Sunday afternoon to honor Mrs. Mary A. "Ma" Kiggins on her 75th birthday anniversary.

Hostesses for the festive event were Mrs. Kiggins' daughters and daughters-in-law.

The buffet and supper tables were centered by impressive spring flower arrangements.

The large beautifully decorated birthday cake, with a lovely array of camellias encircling it, was the highlight of the table arrangements.

Following supper, dancing was enjoyed by the guests.

FIRE FLAMES

By James Heasley

Kellogg Norris, having recently reached his 21st birthday, was admitted to the Fire Department. He is the son of J. George Norris, who resigned his position as first assistant chief because of absence from the city.

This makes for another father and son membership in the local fire force. Anyway, Kellogg was featuring the fond relations of his family and expressing loudly how wonderful his mother and dad get along together. George was finally accosted on the matter.

"You say you never had a quarrel with your wife?" "Never," he replied, "she goes her way and I go her's."

Young Norris is showing the same interest as his father exemplified in the past. Therefore, another good member has been added.

Also, a new member is Bob Castenada. Bob is displaying much interest and ability as a fire fighter. (We call him "Smitty" to avoid the mispronunciation of his real name.) With the addition of such youth, there is little danger of deterioration of the department.

IN ORDER to avoid another year such as we have just experienced, it will be necessary for residents to use caution with heating facilities by having them examined by experts and by preventing them from getting too close to fireplaces while dressed in flimsy clothing.

These are some of the reasons for winter fires. And DON'T FORGET the results of smoldering cigarettes left unattended. And that other one about SMOKING WHILE IN BED. Please remember the horrible fires that have resulted, sometimes ending in death.

THE FLOAT under construction to enter the "Monrovia Day" Parade, is progressing in fine style. It will be good, so don't miss the show.

In keeping with the theme "American History Month" for the month of February, the program will be a short review of "The President's Wives," which will be given by Mrs. George Spragins.

During the month of February there will be a display in the Arcadia Public Library of various literature and pamphlets describing The National Society of the Daughters of American Revolution and its history.

Jesse Stuart Rediscovered Life Close to Nature

YEAR OF MY REBIRTH, by Jesse Stuart. Until he suffered a heart attack two years ago Jesse Stuart had been proud of his ability to do the work of three ordinary men and of having more worthwhile projects than he could accomplish in one lifetime.

In this journal, written during the year of his convalescence when he was adjusting to a more leisurely life, the homespun poet, novelist, educator, lecturer and farmer renews his acquaintance with the wild life and changing seasons of his Kentucky hills. He rediscovers the richness of a contemplative existence lived close to nature.

In TWILIGHT FOR THE GODS, Ernest Gann follows the same theme as he did in THE HIGH AND THE MIGHTY, using an old sailing ship instead of an airplane. The story deals with the last voyage of the leaking old Cannibal, her interesting captain and crew and a motley group of passengers.

THE CROWNING PRIVILEGE, by Robert Graves. You will be in turn amused, outraged, and stimulated into a fresh approach to poetry by this English poet, scholar and novelist. These are learned and delightfully witty essays and poetry, past and present.

AND THE RAIN MY DRINK, by Han Suyin. The author of A MANY SPLENDORED THING writes a new novel of the people of Malaya, where she practiced as a physician. She depicts the problems and hopes of all the races and classes, in vivid and understanding fashion, as only one who sees both sides could do.

OTHER NON-FICTION books are: WATERFRONT PRIEST, Raymond; EARTH WE LIVE ON, Moore; A BUSINESS OF YOUR OWN, Murphy; HANDBOOK OF WILDERNESS TRAVEL, Wells; FURTHER FABLES, Thurber; MUSES ARE HEARD, Capote; SAHARA ADVENTURE, Dole; IT'S A BIG COUNTRY, Burman; AMERICA REMEMBERS, Rapport; ALL THE BEST IN SOUTH AMERICA, Clark; THREE SAINTS AND A SINNER, Tharp; LES GIRLS, Tomkinson; MIRACLE IN THE MOUNTAINS, Kane; LIVING OF THESE DAYS, Fosdick; TROUBLE WITH CINDERELLA, Shaw; TEACHER IS A PERSON, Wilson; THROUGH HELL AND HIGH WATER, Lockwood; ARMS AND MEN, Mills; THIS HALLOWED GROUND, Catton; MEN OF THE WESTERN MATTERS, Van Every.

FICTION: PROVING FLIGHT, Beaty; HUNGRY LEOPARD, Borden; STRANGER TO THE SHORE, Dodson; KING OF PARIS, Endore; MAN IN THE SKY, Hubler; WILD SWAN, Kennedy; BLUE CAMELLIA, Keyes; OLD SOLDIERS NEVER DIE, Mankowitz; THE EXPERTS, Mayer; RANCH OF THE LITTLE LOVES, Nathan; THE ESTRUCAN, Waltari; JUBAL TROOP, Wellman; TREMBLING HILLS, Whitney; TREE OF MAN, White.

Garden Notes...

No Need to Abandon Gardening in Winter

Too many gardeners have the idea that they must "close up shop" during the winter and retire from gardening during the chilly months. But that need not be so, says the California Association of Nurserymen, for there are several handsome shrubs to be planted, tended and enjoyed during the winter months.

For instance, the Strawberry Madrone (Arbutus unedo) grows to a large size with dark green leaves and attractive red strawberry-like fruits in the winter.

The Golden Azara (Azara gilliesii) is a beautiful shrub with holly-like foliage—quite appropriate for the wintertime. Golden flowers hang in clusters from its branches.

CITRUS TREES are attractive the year around and the Meyer Dwarf Lemon is as useful for ornamentation as it is for bearing fruit. The foliage is an attractive crisp green and the lemons a bright yellow. The lemons on the Eureka variety are borne throughout the year, giving the plant color continuously.

There are several other dwarf citrus fruit varieties that make handsome plantings and provide tasty fruits, among them the Rangpur Lime and several orange varieties.

The deliciously fragrant orange-colored flowers of the Orange Osmanthus (Osmanthus aurantiacus) would surely be a welcome color in any garden. This plant grows as a large shrub or small tree with masses of flowers in the fall and winter.

Another handsome evergreen shrub that should be included in winter gardens is the Viburnum tinus lucidum which is a tall-growing shrub with dark green foliage and many clusters of pinkish-white flowers in the winter. It makes an attractive foundation shrub in the shade or sun.

No list of evergreen shrubs for the winter garden would be quite complete without mentioning the Camellia, Azalea and Rhododendron. These exotic plants are available in many varieties, colors, sizes and blossom forms. They will spruce up a winter garden as no other plants can.

High producers in the YMCA campaign and presented individual awards were Frank Strauss, Jack Shovel, Ernestine Williams, Bob Evans, Joe Moody and Dr. Bob Johnson.

SALADS ARE IMPORTANT

Salads are important in planning meals for your family. If you skip a salad too often, you may not be getting a full quota of fruit and vegetable servings into the daily eating scheme.

Fruit salads offer many possibilities for adding interesting variety to your menus. A small salad of tart fruits makes an excellent beginner for a hearty meal. A sweeter version may double for dessert another time.

Fruits go well in salads to accompany the main course, too. Try tantalizing combinations of fruits—tempting mixtures of vegetables and fruits. And serve them often.

MOUNT VERNON SALAD

1/2 pkgs. lemon gelatin
1/2 pkg. cherry gelatin
1 tsp. salt
1 can pitted tart cherries
Water
2 Tbsp. vinegar
1 C. diced peeled apples
1 C. chopped celery
Lettuce

Combine lemon and cherry gelatin and salt in a bowl. Drain juice from cherries, measure and add water to make 1 1/2 C. liquid. Heat to boiling and pour over gelatin. Stir to dissolve gelatin. Add vinegar and cool until syrupy. Fold in well-drained cherries, apples and celery. Pour into molds. Chill until firm. Unmold onto crisp lettuce. Pass Cheese-Mayonnaise.

CHEESE-MAYONNAISE

1/4 C. mayonnaise
1/4 C. evaporated milk
1 C. grated American Cheese

Put mayonnaise into a small bowl. With a fork, gradually whip in evaporated milk. Fold in grated cheese.

BERMUDA SALAD BOWL

2 large oranges
2 tart red apples
1 med. size sweet onion, minced
French dressing
Paprika

Peel oranges, cutting away all the white membrane, and slip out the segments. Core and dice apples. Toss orange segments, apples and onion with well-seasoned French dressing that has been highly colored with paprika. Serve in lettuce-lined bowl.

FRUIT SLAW

Mix a cup or more of cubed pineapple, orange segments or diced red apple with two cups finely shredded cabbage. Add enough Cream Dressing to moisten and serve in crisp lettuce cups.

CREAM DRESSING

1/2 C. sugar
1/2 C. cream OR evaporated milk
Dash of salt
Vinegar to taste

Mix sugar and cream (or evaporated milk) in a small bowl. Add salt and stir until sugar is dissolved. Slowly stir in vinegar until mixture thickens and suits your taste.

When you are on the go ... keep in touch by Long Distance

The boredom and loneliness of business travel can be lessened if you keep in touch with the folks at home. Call the family every day while you're away. Long Distance is not expensive — only $2.50 (plus tax) for three minutes Coast to Coast — cheaper nights and Sundays.

No New Clues

Deb Watts, 445 E. Highland, an engineer, requested the Council "without naming names" to express itself on "this rather inflated situation."

COUNCILMEN Leroy E. Pratt and David E. Wood quickly spoke in favor of a resolution. Mayor Charles E. James disagreed. He thought the matter already had received "much too much attention," that in effect it was gratuitous to declare publicly one's disapproval of an act so obviously wrong, and that publicity might lead to others imitating the cross-burning. He was supported by Councilmen Harold F. Roberts and Herbert J. Harrison.

The resolution, as drafted by Mr. Pratt, was passed unanimously after confusion over the results of an earlier vote and subsequent adjourning of the meeting led to reconvening and a second ballot.

Tweedies Opens Banquet Room

Tweedies Restaurant with its fashionable Forest Room at 137 S. Lake Ave. in Pasadena yesterday announced the opening of a private banquet room capable of serving groups up to 150 people. Tweedies also operates a coffee shop that is open 24 hours a day.

Entertainment in the Forest Room is provided nightly except Sunday by Ernie Stewart, pianist, who has appeared in many of the nation's outstanding night clubs and on top television shows.

COME ON, KIDS! Bundled up in fur coat and cap, Leroy is all set for snow fights at Philadelphia's zoo.

Q. What household servant still works for just pennies a day?

A. Electricity

"EVEN THOUGH prices and wages have steadily gone up and up," explains Reddy Kilo-watt, "a kilowatt hour of electricity costs less today than 20 years ago." (Bigger bill? That's because you're using more and living better electrically.) Small wonder electricity is your biggest bargain in modern living.

VILLA
VIEWSBy Toni Maurin
SYcamore 7-9634

I just know that people are expecting me to write about cherry trees and honesty and all of that sort of thing. However, I would rather give you a little-known fact about our great first President. Few people know, and probably care less, that George had a tooth in his head. He had dentures made by a Dr. Greenwood, whose claim to fame happened to be that he pioneered the use of porcelain in dental restorations.

For the President he created, from a cast, a set of teeth that were a horror to behold and a torture to the wearer. They were carved from the tusk of a hippopotamus. The lower denture was fitted with human teeth. They were permanently hinged together with gold wires. The only times Mr. Washington wore them were for portraits and state occasions where he wasn't forced to use his mouth. Two hundred years has shown us a lot of progress in that department.

MRS. AIKMAN Armstrong of 3450 Fairpoint returned home last week from Alta Vista Hospital. Mrs. Armstrong suffered a broken leg in a freak accident that just couldn't have happened, in Sonoma, Calif. While skiing down a gentle slope around four miles an hour, with nothing in her way but snow, she toppled and gave herself a bangup break in her shin bone. I reckon it will be a long time before she attempts that sport again.

A GROUP of people up Kinneola way got together last Saturday night and rented a bus to go out to Santa Monica and dance to the champagne music of Lawrence Welk. There was a pre-dance potluck Dagwood sandwich party held at the Larry Dietzels at 3119 Meyer Lo Lane. Among the participants were Messrs. and Mesdames Neal Batterson and their son and his date, Gene Burt; Frank Ferris, William Nash, F. Wayne Furstenger, Edward Meyer, Paul Wetcher, Charles Pretzinger, Walter Opp, Benjamin Petman, John Willis, L. T. Greiner, Harry Pulaski and their daughter and escort, Also Messrs. and Mesdames R. B. English, Karl Dietzel, W. R. Williams, E. R. Kinkade and Dr. and Mrs. John Evans. Additional guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Michalsky and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Giswein.

MRS. LE VON NORMAN of Seattle, Wash., is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. David A. Elmer of 2480 Fairpoint. She arrived last week and is looking around for a home down this way.

DR. AND MRS. ROBERT Mueller of 1590 Old House Road entertained at a buffet dancing party at their home last Saturday night. Among the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Golds-worthy, Aikman Armstrong, Ernie Maurin, John Chapman, George Clark, Larry Garland, George Holmes, Joseph Phillipson and Dr. and Mrs. Jack Paschall Jr. and Dr. and Mrs. Cleto Dorsey.

MR. AND MRS. F. Wayne Furstenger of 3126 Meyer Lo Lane returned from a business trip up Las Vegas way last week. They stayed at the Fremont Hotel, and were able to see quite a few of the local sights in spite of business!

MRS. JOSEPH PHILLIPSON of 1485 Old House Road took her two eldest children, David and Alice to 29 Palms recently, to celebrate David's 11th birthday. They stayed at the 29 Palms Inn and David opined that it was the best birthday he had ever spent. They took long hikes, swam, went horesback riding, to movies, and generally used up every waking hour with exciting activities.

Following the brunch one of the women's apparel stores in Pasadena will present a fashion show. Models will be members of the alumnae group. They include Mmes. Robert Edmonston, Hilton A. Green, Frank Crosby, Hayes O. Schlundt, William T. Harper, John K. Miles and Robert L. Farmer.

Mmes. Charles L. Ennis and James R. Chadwick are co-chairman of the party. Committee members are Mmes. Gordon E. Simpson, raffle; Robert Nuccio, favors; Antone F. Reznicek, decorations. Mrs. Reznicek will be assisted by Mmes. Harold G. Stuber, Wesley L. Dooley, Harold J. McArthur, Warren C. Cooper and N. M. Brandt.

The meeting will begin at 12:30 p.m. with dessert served by the hostess, Mrs. Arthur Krause, 3580 Greenhill, and her co-hostesses, Mrs. Frank Kirksey and Mrs. Marvin Loomis.

The garden kit project was begun last year when physical therapists welcomed the idea. Committee members experimented with many types of rooting material and seed, containers and tiny plastic accessories to add to the miniature gardens before arriving at a practical and appealing little kit to brighten the hours of the children in the hospital for lengthy periods.

Due to the enthusiasm expressed by members and friends of the Hastings Ranch unit of the League of Women Voters of Pasadena at a recent discussion of United States foreign policy, there will be a further discussion Feb. 28 at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Conrad Walburg, 510 Pembroke Dr.

Response to the eight other discussion groups conducted in the surrounding Pasadena area by the League of Women Voters was equally successful.

Anyone interested in attending the coming discussion is invited to call Mrs. Charles Cole at SYcamore 5-3032 or Mrs. Arthur Shipman at ELgin 5-2839.

Delta Zetas Discuss daVinci

A discussion of ideas of Leonardo daVinci "brought to life" highlighted the program of the dinner meeting last week of Delta Zeta alumnae at the Eagle Rock home of Mrs. Howard Cordell. Harold Adler led the discussion after an address to the group.

Lacy Valentine decorations were used on dinner tables. Dinner chairman was Mrs. R. A. Osten, with Mrs. Lon Boen, Mrs. Wallace Short, Mrs. L. M. Dixon and Mrs. B. R. Whitaker Jr. assisting her. Mrs. Howard Hitchcock is president of the Pasadena-Foothill chapter of the sorority.

AOPi Alumnae Sponsor Playhouse Performance

The Southern California Council of Alpha Omicron Pi will sponsor a benefit performance Sunday evening of "Curious Miss Carroway," with ZaSu Pitts, at the Pasadena Playhouse.

Pasadena alumnae of the sorority will be in charge of the theater benefit, proceeds of which will be presented to the USC Speech-Hearing Clinic, Pasadena Girls' Club and the Exceptional Children's Foundation in Long Beach.

Mrs. S. T. Leavitt is chairman of the benefit performance, assisted by Mrs. F. C. Wheeler Jr., president, and Mrs. Charles W. Hunter, press chairman. Also among those attending from the Pasadena area will be Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Withersham, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Rudyard Stickney and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Smith.

Don Benito PTA
To Hold Series on Learning to Read

How do we learn to read? What are the processes involved? How can a parent help a child acquire this important skill?

The Parent Education Committee of the Don Benito PTA, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edsel Curry, is conducting a discussion series on "Learning to Read." The series will open Wednesday evening, Feb. 27, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium and will be held on successive Wednesday evenings through March 20.

Dr. Rob Langston, who was enthusiastically received when he presided over another series, "Education and Our Children," two years ago at Don Benito, will lead the current discussion.

Alpha Chi Alums Have Luncheon

Pasadena Junior Alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega met last week for their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Clifford Wilcox, president, at 884 San Simon, Arcadia.

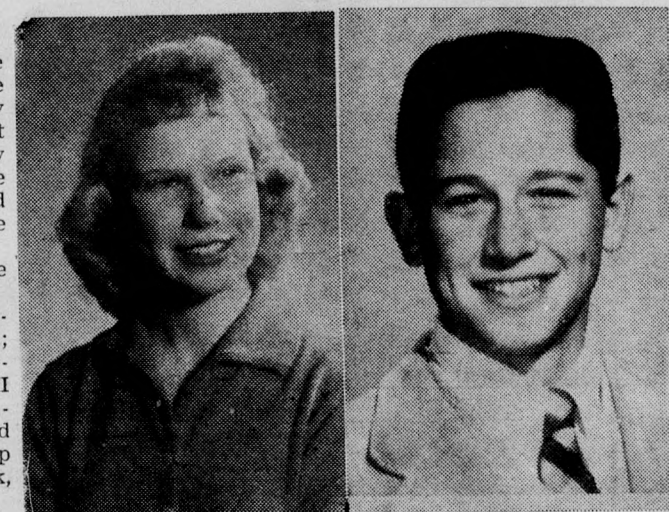

Assisting Mrs. Wilcox were Mrs. Albert Ashworth, Mrs. Jack McConaghy and Mrs. Paul Weeks. An officers' nominating committee was appointed.

In addition to helping those with emotional speech and hearing disorders and providing therapist training, extensive research is done at the clinic. As patients pay only nominal fees, the clinic is not self-supporting, and equipment, building repairs and funds for additional clinical assistants must be secured from donations.

Reservations for the special performance at the Playhouse may be made with Mrs. Leavitt, SYcamore 3-7420.

Hastings Teen Times

By Joan Kaponya
ELgin 5-2015

Hi, Kids! We certainly have had a lot of activity. Track meets, the Senior Dance, Play Day (at La Canada) and parties.

First, we would like to call your attention to the pictures of our student body president, Steve Samerjan, and our secretary, Toddy Draeger.

LAST FRIDAY, Marshall's Senior Dance was held in the Girls' Gym. "Kupid Kapers" it was called and the kids had a real ball. Among those attending were Andrea Vingoe, Sharon Knickrehm, Carole Rees, Donna Compton, Helen MacDavid, Franklin Wayne, Toby Spessard, Chris Dinwiddie, Marcia MacMann, Betty Zook, Dianne Tyler, Gail Kimble, Carlyn Mohn, Sharon Leshner, John Ogren, Dennis Decio, Carol Glazer, Mike Tibbs, Gwen Bucknell, Jerry Rubendall, Lois Carlson, and many others.

SLUMBER PARTIES! There were two of these held last week. Yours truly Valentine Slumber Party was held Friday. Party time was from 8 p.m. Friday to 11 a.m. the next day. The girls enjoyed themselves playing records, charades and other games.

They finished by swimming Saturday morning. Heart-shaped Valentine cakes, cokes, ice cream and usual party snacks made up the refreshments. A hearty pancake and sausage breakfast preceded the splashing. Party consisted of Barbara Captain, Andrea Vingoe, Pam Strong, Irene Guttman, Joanne Floyd, Carole Rees, Mary Ball and Linda Reavis.

Another slumber party full of fun saw the following girls enjoy an evening and morning together at the home of Betty Zook: Diane Tyler, Gail Kimble, Helen MacDavid, Marilyn Mohn and Sharon Leshner.

MARSHALL'S humorous baseball game dance pantomime was a highlight of the play day event at La Canada, which saw all the surrounding schools taking part.

MARSHALL'S track team certainly got off to a fine calling in the news!

Some of you may have heard of the Lions Club Speech Contest. The topic for the speeches this year is "My Place in the World of 1976."

Last Friday the Wilson contest was held. Four teachers served as judges. The first-place winner was Linda Dittberner. Kitty Harper came in second and Michael Briggs was third.

Linda will represent Wilson at the Lions Club dinner and contest. There she will compete against winners from Marshall, La Canada and LaSalle.

A WEEK AGO today a modern-creative dance play day was held at La Canada. Representatives from all of the junior highs in Pasadena attended.

In many of the schools modern dance is offered for two or three days a week instead of gym. At Wilson this is not the case. Since many girls enjoyed dance last year we are allowed to use the gym two or three times after school for dance.

Not all that participate after school were able to attend the play day.

The girls who attended got out of fifth and sixth periods: Pat Dickson, Linda Dittberner, Linda Ellis, Judy Jennings, Linda Jordan, Yvonne Ulrich, Janine Anderson, Nancy Collier, Carolyn Dawson, Elaine East.

THE KIDS from Bethany Church had lots of fun up at Pine Crest in the snow. Brrr—a couple of them fell through the frozen pool. The kids from the Congregational Church had a lot of fun romping in the snow recently, too. They went up to Slezers for a real snow party.

See you next week. Keep

New Adult
Discussion
Group

Carl Cheadle of Sierra Madre and Sam Rudnick, 1270 Coronet, will be co-leaders of a new Adult Study-Discussion Group which is now being formed and sponsored by the Pasadena Liberal Arts Center.

Residents of the area interested in joining the group are urged to attend the first organization meeting to be held Monday evening, Feb. 25, at 8 o'clock in the Boy Scout Council House, 540 N. Rosemead Blvd.

A series of 10 discussion sessions are to be conducted on "Great Issues in American Politics," the material for which has been prepared by Richard Hofstadter of Columbia University.

Purpose of the series, according to the Pasadena Liberal Arts Center, is to "examine important issues through the American tradition of group discussion, and to stimulate exchange of ideas."

For further information, telephone Mrs. Betty Hansen at the Center, SYcamore 5-4339.

Wilson High PTA
Sponsors Class
In Dancing

The Wilson Junior High School PTA and Pasadena Department of Recreation are co-sponsoring a 10-week ballroom class for the Wilson students.

Classes are in the school gymnasium on Thursdays, 3:45 to 4:45 p.m. The class is open to all students of the school. There is a moderate fee charged for registration.

Facets of social decorum, etiquette and introductions are a basic part of the course, as well as the currently popular ballroom steps and patterns. The PTA is planning a special party for the class, at their final session on April 11.

The hostesses' sisters, Susie and Linda, assisted with the party arrangements and serving of dinner.

A Mardi Gras theme will be used for the table decorations. All Eugene Field parents and their friends are cordially invited to attend the gala event.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Doris Pooler at ELgin 5-1904.

Little League Changes May Mean Tougher Competition

Coming as a surprise to no one is the news that the Hastings Ranch Little League will operate again this year. The manner in which it operates may provide a mild upset in some circles, however.

Three changes will alter the operation as heretofore constituted. They are (1) the minimum age for participation will be nine this year as against the previous eight, (2) the league will maintain a six-team major league as against the previous four, and (3) the major teams will carry six 12-year-olds on their rosters as against the previous limit of five.

These decisions were made by the league directors at a recent meeting to get the 1957 season under way. The matter of elimination of 8-year-olds is one of mathematics and facilities. The league operated at an uncomfortable maximum last year of upwards of 220 boys.

ONLY 30 boys graduated last year and there were 50 boys who participated for the first time, not counting the 8-year-olds. There is every reason to believe that the increase will be even greater this year, leaving no time or place to play for a greater number even with the prospects of use of the third diamond under construction on top of the reservoir.

This is not a problem peculiar to the local league. The Arcadia league, for example, had to eliminate 8-year-olds several years ago and the Santa Monica league restricts play to nothing younger than 10-year-olds.

League rules this year permit expansion to a six-team league and increase to six per team of 12-year-old boys. This will operate to provide tougher competition for a greater number of boys (30)

PTA Schedules Final
Curriculum Meeting

The final meeting on junior college curriculum, under the auspices of the Pasadena Council of Parents and Teachers, will be Feb. 28 at 7:45 p.m. in Harbeson Hall, 1570 E. Colorado St.

This meeting will complete a four-study of curriculum in the Pasadena City Schools, which starts with the elementary level. The Pasadena City College PTA patrons will serve as co-sponsors of the meeting.

Titled "Students of Pasadena City College in Action," the program will present various aspects of the junior college curriculum through student demonstrations.

Included will be students from the business education department under the chairmanship of George Juett, and music students under the leadership of Robert Fleury.

A demonstration in the field of electronics and instrumentation, supervised by Robert Moses, chairman of the department of engineering and technology, will be presented.

Recent teaching methods of mathematics will be demonstrated by students under the direction of L. Clark Lay.

Several groups of students will represent the life science department under Margaret Stason. They will include students from the dental assisting, pre-medical and home economics courses.

A representative from the speech classes, supervised by Dr. Paul Smith, also will be on the program.

Exhibits will be on display in Harbeson Hall representing the work of the art and photography departments directed by Mrs. Helen Reid and Russell Whitaker, respectively. Additional exhibits from the engineering division also will be shown.

Mrs. Randolph Price, school education chairman for the PTA Council, and Mrs. Ernest Maag, program chairman for the PCC-PTA Patrons, are coordinating plans for the program of the evening.

All interested adults and students are invited to attend.

Local Sorority
Is Newest
Chapter of IDCA

The local "Doll Sorority" organized a year ago by Mrs. William F. Cummskey, 1039 Cynthia, for foothill area antique doll collectors, is now the newest chapter in the International Doll Collectors of America, Inc.

The group was started with eight members and has now grown to a membership of 19.

Many of the members will exhibit dolls at the Spring Doll Exhibit at Bowers Memorial Museum in Santa Ana and attend the IDCA national antique doll collectors' four-day convention in San Francisco this summer.

The local chapter's officers include Mrs. Cummskey, president; Mrs. R. Selby of Altadena, vice president; Mrs. M. Allison of La Canada, secretary; Mrs. D. Palmer of South Pasadena, treasurer, and Mrs. R. Zeglah, Mrs. M. Reynolds and Mrs. M. Sheeley, all of Altadena, committee members, responsible for the group's activities and publicity.

It has been decided the local chapter's main activity for each fall will be an exchange of teas with the 15 other doll chapters and clubs in the Los Angeles area.

Garden Club
Plans Luncheon
At Eldorado

Lunch at noon Tuesday at the Eldorado Inn, Altadena, will precede the February meeting of Hastings Ranch Garden Club. Members will then adjourn to the home of Mrs. Walter McGinnis, 3570 Fairmeade, for the remainder of the meeting.

Mrs. Charlotte Hoak will be guest speaker after a short business session led by Mrs. Emil Barlow, president. Mrs. Hoak's topic will be "Planting to Suit the Climate."

The club has announced two new members—Mrs. Lewis J. Ross and Mrs. Fred C. Haupt.

Fabulous Scenery, Weather
Lure Visitors to Death Valley

One of the most delightful places at this time of the year is Death Valley. Cooled off to "ideal" summer weather, Furnace Creek and Stovepipe Wells, the Valley's two resort communities, offer quiet pleasures to lazy sun-seekers or a choice of sporting facilities to those interested in a weekend of golf, tennis, swimming or horse-back riding.

Nature lovers, too, will be richly rewarded by the awe-inspiring scenes afforded by the Valley, itself. For in this locale are such optical pleasures as Dante's View, a mile-high point overlooking the Valley, and Badwater, one of the lowest surveyed points in the western hemisphere.

There's also Scotty's Castle, a fabulous ranch house, reputed to cost some $2 million, and other points of interest like the Sand Dunes and Ubehebe Crater.

Adding to the natural scenery are a handful of desert characters—like "Seldom Seen Slim" and a few other ancient prospectors—who are bound to entertain visitors and, of course, unfold a Death Valley tale or two if one is willing to listen.

There are three routes Southlanders may travel to this area. Take US 6 and California 190 to the Valley or follow US 6 to the Inyokern turnoff and then northeast via Trona and Wildrose. The suggested trailer route, because of minimum grades, is US 66 to Barstow, US 91 to Baker, California 127 to Death Valley Junction and then California 190 to Furnace Creek.

The drive to the Valley, via 6 and 190, goes through Palmdale, Lancaster, Mojave and the Mojave Desert area, and for those who like the wide, open space of desert country, this journey will be a treasured trip.

The route to the Valley after reaching the Inyokern turnoff, via US 6, proceeds through Indian Wells Valley to Ridgecrest, Salt Creek Canyon and then up a long, easy incline to Slate Range Summit. The drive continues through Panamint Valley, Wildrose Canyon and Emigrant Canyon to Death Valley.

DOWN—One of the lowest points in the western hemisphere is Badwater, on floor of Death Valley. Area viewed here is from Agaveberry Point.

The route via Baker traverses agricultural valleys to San Bernardino, crosses Cajon and goes through desert areas to the Valley.

Hepatitis Shows Tenfold Increase in L.A. County

By Roy O. Gilbert, M.D.
L.A. County Health Officer

For several years the number of reported cases of infectious hepatitis reported in Los Angeles County has been steadily increasing. Indeed, the increase in reporting since 1950 is tenfold, with a total of 1,114 cases reported last year. So far, in 1957 the rate has been slightly higher than in 1956.

Infectious hepatitis is of concern to public health officials since the disease is usually more prevalent in areas or institutions where sanitary living conditions are poor and, from these places, the infection may spread elsewhere in the county.

This disorder is basically an infection of the liver and is caused by a virus. Also called epidemic hepatitis, epidemic jaundice or catarrhal jaundice, the disease is most common among young people, the largest incidence occurring between 10 and 14 years of age.

SYMPTOMS of the disorder appear anywhere from 15 to 35 days after the person is infected. Most typical are the digestive disturbances which may include loss of appetite, nausea with or without vomiting, diarrhea and pain in the upper right abdomen. Enlargement and tenderness of the liver may be elicited by physical examination, and a slight fever, weakness, and headache may also be present.

More severe cases of this ailment are accompanied by jaundice, giving a yellow color to the skin and the whites of the eyes. When as severe as this, illness usually lasts for several weeks or months and on rare occasions may cause death.

Ordinarily, however, the illness caused by infectious hepatitis is mild in nature. Like polio, another virus disease, a person may harbor the infection or have a mild attack without knowing it. Such individuals, without any signs of illness whatsoever, may nevertheless be carriers of the virus and so infect those persons with whom they come in contact.

INFECTIOUS HEPATITIS is sometimes transmitted through contaminated water and milk supplies, but in Los Angeles County, where food sanitation standards are high, it is chiefly transmitted by association of an infected person with others. The virus is present in the intestinal contents of the infected person and perhaps also in discharges from the nose and mouth. Through excreta or contaminated hands the germs are generally transferred to food and water.

Strict personal cleanliness and good environmental sanitation are the best means of preventing this disorder. Since infectious hepatitis can pass so easily from one person to another, such measures are absolutely necessary if the spread is to be restricted.

Gamma globulin, the blood derivative used in combating measles, is apparently the one substance now in use that can prevent infectious hepatitis. If called soon enough when it makes an appearance, the physician can therefore prevent the malady in the rest of the family. As in the case of measles, gamma globulin is effective only if given very soon after contact with the infected person and before symptoms appear.

Bodily exertion has a most adverse effect on a sick or convalescent liver, so plenty of rest is needed in order to avoid permanent damage to this vital organ after an attack of infectious hepatitis. The liver has wonderful recuperative powers.

GYMNASTICS SEASON is over and it was a great one. Although we lost the city championship to Marshall, we came in a good second. I wish to state that in our two meets with Marshall before the city meet we walked all over 'em.

Two guys from Wilson took first places in the city meet. They were Steve Kay on the ropes, with a 3.9-second climb, and Bill Damer on the highbar.

Others who were outstanding this year are Bill White, Roy Kline, Norman Manz, Eldon DeHan, Joe Signorina and, of course, Coach Baker.

Track is the sport this season. There are 54 guys on the A and B teams who are full of fight.

Everyone is sure Wilson will come home the track champs.

WANTED: Seventh and eighth grade news.

If any of you seventh or eighth graders have a party, go anywhere or do anything, give me a buzz. I will be happy to use it if I can.

That doesn't mean that I don't want to hear from ninth and 10th graders. So, if you know any news, let me know. Thanks.

The people who have dignity to support have to economize in every other phase of living.
